Workshops offered:

How to Say “No” Without Feeling Guilty! - Rev. Jim Cunningham

Do you say “no” and then struggle with guilt?
Do you say “yes” and then regret it or resent it?
Learn how to take greater control over your life and your decision making!
Why do we say “yes” when we know we want to say “no?”
Come hear the workshop no pastor wants you to attend! :-)

UCC Research Office – “All Things Yearbook” – Destiny Hisey

Learn the ins and outs of the annual United Church of Christ Yearbook. In this workshop we’ll discuss why it’s important to provide your annual report data, how it is used throughout the denomination and how best to provide this data. We’ll spend time demonstrating how easy it is to use the online database to submit your church’s data. Come prepared with your questions as we’ll leave a block of time for Q & A at the end of the session.

Bad Girls Rock! – Rev. Barbara Essex

This hands-on, participatory workshop will provide an overview of those “bad girls” in the Bible we love to hate. Better than any television reality show, the lives of these infamous women provide lessons on what to do and what not to do. We will focus on one bad girl, Jezebel, and see what story she leaves for us. At the end of the workshop, you may even claim “badness” for yourself! Fasten your seatbelts--this will be a bumpy ride and so worth the effort.

UCC Websites – Stephanie Ortiz

This workshop will deal with the subject of creating and maintaining websites. It will include recommendations of resources to create a local church website yourself, using free or cheap tools. Workshop speaker, Stephanie Ortiz, is an Online Communications Specialist in the Publishing, Identity, and Communication Department of Local Church Ministries. We will also be meeting Ann Poston, who is the Director of this department.

UCC Resource Center - “Engaging and Embracing New Technology and Communication Mediums” - Tiffany French

This workshop will review over the new technologies and modes of communication the UCC is engaging in to better serve our churches, leaders and people in the pew – from social media to digital campaigns

“Appreciating life’s rainbows” Rev. Catherine Lawrence

The Rev. Catherine Lawrence has been on a life long journey toward health and wholeness that embraces one’s mind, body and Spirit. As a registered nurse, she understands the importance of maintaining good physical health. Caring for patients and their families, though, she found that that quality health care, alone is not enough. This passionate search for deeper understanding wholeness led her to seminary. In 2008 she received Master of Divinity Degree with a specialization in pastoral care from the Methodist Theological School in Ohio. With an additional four units of CPE, Clinical Pastoral Education, she accepted a call, was ordained and is the pastor of Zion United Church of Christ, Fireside in Bellevue Ohio. Her ministry embraces the importance of spiritual, mental and physical wholeness through healthy behaviors, joy, spirituality, prayer and play.
